

The Israel-Palestine Conflict

The Middle East Conflict continues to dominate world news. This lecture will focus on the Jewish defence of Zionistic policies and the claims of the Palestinian people for statehood.

Rabbi Professor Dan Cohn-Sherbok, who has just published a new book (Introduction to Zionism and Israel, Continuum, January 2012), will explore the arguments in favour of Jewish statehood.

Emma Playfair OBE will describe her experiences working with Palestinians who have suffered under the Israeli regime.

Wednesday 8th February 2012

With arrival drinks at 5.30pm finishing at 7.00pm

Senior Common Room, St Mary's University College,
Waldegrave Road, Twickenham TW1 4SX

Logos events are free and open to all students, staff and to the public.
For more information please contact Leonora Paasche: paaschel@smuc.ac.uk

For directions to St Mary's University College, please visit www.smuc.ac.uk/contact/directions.htm