

Dr Mark Donelly

Academic and Professional Qualifications:

- PhD (Surrey University) 1995
- BA History With English (First Class Hons) Surrey University 1988 (1987)

Grants / Awards / Bursaries:

- British Academy State Studentship Award (1989-1992)
- British culture, history and politics, 1939-70
- Representations of the Holocaust since 1945
- Cultural memory
- Scholarship of learning and teaching

External Involvement (Consultancy / Professional Bodies / External Examining):

- History external examiner for Plymouth University from September 2005-9 (undergraduate and masters' level)
- External member of validation panel for Foundation Degree in English with History and History with English, North Devon College, May 2005
- Academic reader of book proposals and manuscripts for Routledge and Pearson Longman, 2000-8
- Referee for Contemporary British History journal
- Book reviewer for journals and publications including American Historical Review, History, BBC History Magazine and Scope 2002-8

Books:

- Sixties Britain, Harlow, Longman, Pearson, 2005
- Britain in the Second World War, London, Routledge, 1999
- 'The legacy of the fifties' in The 1960s: a world in transition (Palgrave: forthcoming)
- 'The Holocaust and post-war historical narratives of Britain's "good war"', (essay in edited collection of conference papers, Palgrave 2009).
- 'No Christianity, No Elvis Presley', The Pastoral Review, vol. 3, issue 5, September / October 2007
- 'Vatican II and the "long sixties"', The Pastoral Review, vol. 1, issue 6, November / December 2006
- Entry on 'rationing' for Encyclopedia of Europe 1914-2004, Charles Scribner's Sons, USA 2006
- 'Write the book, teach the module: integrating historical research and teaching', Case study published on HEA History Subject Centre website, 2006:
www.heacademy.ac.uk/hca/history

Conference Presentations / Performances / Radio Broadcasts:

- 'Assessing to promote student learning: remodelling an assessment strategy for undergraduate historians', Paper presented with Claire Norton, HEA History Subject Centre, History in Higher Education Conference (April 2008)

- Contributor to ESPN radio discussion programme on British culture(s), March 2008
- 'The Holocaust and narratives of Britain's 'good war'', 'Post World War II / Post Holocaust Memory', University of Leicester, May 2007
- 'Integrating subject-based research and teaching', St Mary's Staff Development series, July 2006
- 'Write the book, teach the module: integrating historical research and teaching', HEA History Subject Centre, History in Higher Education Conference (April 2006)
- 'Sex, Shopping and Swinging London: re-reading sixties Britain', School of Theology, Philosophy, and History Research Seminars, 2005
- Contributor to documentary series, West Country: Top Secret, Carlton Television, 2003
- 'The British Music Press in the 1960s', Institute of Contemporary British History, Institute of Historical Research (July 2001)
- 'The Myth of the Blitz', Birmingham University, October 2001
- Contributor to BBC Radio 4 series on wartime radio, 2000
- 'Hollywood and the Depression', Guildford Institute, Surrey, February 2000
- 'Labour's return to power 1955-1964', Guildford Institute, Surrey, November 1995
- 'Labour politics and the affluent society 1951-1964', Institute of Contemporary British History, Queen Mary and Westfield College, London, June 1994

Conferences and Courses Attended:

- 'Post World War II / Post Holocaust Memory', University of Leicester, May 2007
- Change Academy Event, 'Integrating research and teaching', North East Wales Institute, 2006
- HEA History Subject Centre, History in Higher Education Conference, 2008
- HEA History Subject Centre, History in Higher Education Conference, 2006
- Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Conference, City University, 2001
- 'The permissive society and its enemies', Institute of Contemporary British History Conference, Institute of Historical Research, July 2001
- 'Chamberlain and appeasement', Bolton Institute of Higher Education, 1997
- 'Images of Britain', Institute of Contemporary British History Conference, Queen Mary and Westfield College, London, June 1994
- Anglo-American History Conferences, Institute of Historical Research, various 2000-7